NOTE! YOU WILL RECEIVE CREDIT TOWARDS YOUR AP LIT GRADE FOR COMPLETING THIS PACKET AS WELL AS THE ENTRANCE ESSAY.

1. Please complete and return this packet and your entrance essay directly to Ms. Wallenberg or Mr. Olson in the English Resource Center in the English department on or before Friday, Sept. 6, 2019 regardless if your class is scheduled for first or second semester. NOTE: This entire packet will be an important indicator of your preparedness for this AP class. The quality of your responses to the short answer questions in this packet and the entrance essay is important. Furthermore, you will receive points for completing this packet and the entrance essay.
2. Summer reading of four novels, the annotation of these works, and the work associated with this reading is a course requirement. Turning in these three annotated novels and the work associated with the reading is also due in the English Resource Center in the English department on or before Friday, Sept. 6, 2019. A separate document outlines the novel titles as well as a description of the work associated with this reading and a rubric used to evaluate your work.
3. Be sure to visit the AP Lit. website periodically throughout the summer and fall for updates on the course. Here is the URL for the AP HOME PAGE <https://wallenbergsplit1.wordpress.com/> / (1st semester) or <https://wallenbergsplit2.wordpress.com/2016/01/25/frankensteins-lesson-plans-and-hw-2013/> (2nd semester).
AP Lit. is a two-term course (2 credits). A course syllabus is included on page four of this document.

NOTE: You may print out this Info Packet and hand write your answers or complete in WORD. Be sure to print it out to turn in on the due date. The essay must be typed and printed as well.
